An evening celebrating the lives of Alice & Hilda Douglas Pennant

Friday 23rd June 2017 7 30 pm.

Wordsmith Richard Douglas Pennant, will be joined by eminent musicians Kirsten Hellier and Eleni Skarpari to bring you a sparkling evening's entertainment in St Julitta's Church.

Kirsten first started playing the violin in Scotland where she grew up listening to the sound of the pipes, highland fiddling and Hebridean singing. She has toured to India, Pakistan and Philippines and later across Europe absorbing many diverse styles of fiddle playing, whilst continuing to play classical music with groups such as the European Community Chamber Orchestra, Halle Orchestra, London Symphony and Scottish Chamber Orchestras. She is a founder member of the Artisans ensemble and the Schulhoff Piano Trio.

London based singer songwriter Eleni Skarpi, otherwise known as Echo Wants Her Voice Back, was born in Cyprus. As well as regular performances in UK, she recently made debuts at South By South West in Austin Texas and the Fengaros Festival in Cyprus. Her last single 'Laisse-moi' was released in October, 2016 along with an official music video filmed in Paris.

Welsh born, Richard Douglas Pennant lives in Cyprus. His writing explores themes as diverse as ancient Greek and Celtic mythology, personal relationships in this life and the next and oilfield history. He has read in venues all over Europe as well as in China and the Middle East. His collection Lines in the Sky was just published by Cinnamon Press and an accompanying CD with selected poems also features music by Huw Warren on piano and Neil Yates on trumpet. Earlier in June Richard read, as part of 'What we should have said...', at the Salisbury International Arts Festival.

All come together tonight in this unique venue
